Remember that time she switched outfits with her girlfriend at a club. She does funny stuff like that to mess with the Paps heads. I totally love that! She has such a sense of humour! She really has such a lovely endearing personality.

Apparently the Video Music Awards have decided that Britney is too flakey

B.S. does NOT have a good heart. She's an abusive, selfish, uncaring, crazy slut. She's guilty of child abuse, animal abuse, human abuse, drug abuse, and alcohol abuse.

How on earth could anyone say she has a good heart? I don't even think she has a heart. If she did she would be home trying to figure out a way to save her kids from the mess she created, not running of to Las Vegas for a night of sex drugs and alcohol.

That wig couldn't have cost more than $20 from the Vietnamese wig store. I don't understand, if she has so much money, why can't she buy a decent wig? If she went on the VMA's looking like that, they would laugh her off the stage.

Hiya Gang,

Everybody comfortable? Right then here we go; Britney is a skunk, a whore, a tart, oh no hang on that should be skank, a slag, (what is a 'skank' anyway?) a slapper, a mattress-back, a yo-yo panties, a sperm-bank, and a proper little knob-garage for any man that wants to park his cock.

That's the insults done, now for the...oh God, I can hardly read Kevin's writing on this bit. Best make something up myself. Erm, one of Britney's boobs is a bit bigger than the other, and her vibrato has a slight quaver in it. I also hope she stubs her toe and that it hurts (but not too much).

Well, whaddya think gang? David says I'm a useless fuckwit who should grow up, and Brooklyn thinks I should take up gardening. But they can both bollocks 'cos they can barely put a sentence together between them. I think that when all's said and done, and considering this was my first go at 'hating' (as you guys call it) that was pretty 'Major'. Right then, just need to think up a really clever and 'fierce' name so nobody will suspect it's me.

Everyone in the music, acting and entertainment world would have a lot more respect for these two if they would work out their issues.

It would show great fortitude then the power houses would take Kevin and Britney serious.

Right now they are a joke on both sides of the fence.

Britney under animal charity's surveillance after dog's injury.

Pop star Britney Spears has reportedly been under surveillance of an animal charity ever since her dog was seen wearing a cast recently. A team of activists from the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals visited Britney's home in Los Angeles on Saturday, in order to ensure that the dog was getting adequate medical treatment after the injury.

The singer's young sons Jayden James and Sean Preston had allegedly injured the pet terrier, due to which he suffered a broken a leg.

Britney Spears Flicks Off Photog, Sports A Mullet
Gossip Girls

After being pulled over for speeding on Friday night, Britney Spears continued her evening escapades with her new “boyfriend of the moment” and another pal on Saturday night (August 25).

Growing tired of being followed (or just plain bored), the threesome made things interesting by lashing back at the paparazzi.

OMG wait til you see these pictures! She is mad as hell, zits are runnin amuck, hair sticking straight up on top of her head. They are hysterical. I'm still lmao Never one for a quiet night at home, Britney and some pals hit up paparazzi hotspot Koi restaurant in West Hollywood on Saturday night.

Interesting, though, Spears was accompanied by choreographer R.J. Durell, who is rumored to be choreographing the former pop star’s rumored VMA performance.

It’s Sunday, the day of our Lord, and we’re feeling spiritual.

Dear Jesus, help Britney. Give her the strength to turn rumor into reality.

We wanna see that ho kill it at the VMAs and revive her career!

Oh, yeah, and if she could be a little more normal and a better mother, that'd be freaking awesome!

Britney Spears On The Loose - K-Fed Returns To LAX And Hops In A Cab
by Gia Cortina

K-Fed returned to LAX yesterday and hopped in a cab, probably because Britney Spears is on the loose!

Fed-Ex was returning from North Carolina after filming a guest role for the CW series, "One Tree Hill," reports our friends at TMZ.

Kevin arrived at LAX with his bodyguard, not looking for attention, but K-Fed is the man, and the ladies couldn't help but notice! Although Kevin tried his best not to pay attention, at one point, you catch him laughing!

Hate to tell you this 1:59PM, but Twitney is already gone (as in over and done with). And as for the wind, the bitch smells like bad wind (as in nasty farts). This bitch is sick, psychotic, untalented, completely stupid, nuts, smelly, child neglecter, trailer trash whore, will fuck anyone, etc. I seriously doubt she will be at the VMA's. Those are just rumors. Even the people that are running the event said she is NOT performing and won't be there. But if she does show up, she will be a huge joke, will fuck it up big time like she always does, then everyone will laugh at her cheep whoreish self. This bitch is so over and done with. Now all she has left is to die, and hopefully soon too.

With only 2 weeks away wouldn't the artists performing at the VMA's already be rehearsing together? It seems to me Britney is again doing this by herself and all I see is a bunch of partying. She also has LAX on the 31st. What will she do there? I thought performers prepared for these things.

When you see the close-ups of her without the extensions, you can see just how sparse her hair has gotten from all the abuse she's given over the years. Repeated bleaching and extensions are very rough on the hair. At this rate, she should get used to being bald, because she will have no hair left by the age of 40...assuming she lives that long, which is highly doubtful.

Speeding is against the law. Just because she got off with a warning (for the second time that I am aware of) doesn't it make it ok. And this is the second incident in less than a month involving reckless driving (the parking incident) on her part.

I don't give a damn how many papz were following her. Speeding only makes the situation more dangerous. This little spoiled brat was the one who compared herself to Princess Diana....it would be a shame if Britney decided that she could get away with speeding and never end up in an accident that would claim someone's life. But then, Britney doesn't think of those things, she only wants to make herself look good and the papz look bad when she's tired of using them.

In a couple days, 2007 will be 2/3 over, and that "big comeback" of Britney's is still just a big rumor and "what-if" as it was in January. The only difference is that she has singlehandedly crapped on her reputation day in and day out since the year began. Sleep well, dear Britney fans, dream big dreams of what used to be, because that's the closest you are going to get to a "comeback."

August 26, 2007 2:50 PM
Posted by: Anonymous

BTW, If all the haters went away, the only people who would be left would be the fans who lie and fake-good about her all the time, and impartial people who don't know Britney's histories, and do not know how in denial the fans are and how much they lie and cover her arse here, while in fact complaining to themselves on the fan sites about the very same issues that supposed "haters" claim about here. So, you see, we are the counter balance that allows the people who know nothing about Britney to realize that the majority of her fans lie.

Also I could have listed more things about Bratty, like the fact that the only music she's leaked in the past year is in fact a couple years old, hopefully under produced due to the quality or lack there of, makes her sound drugged up, and oh yeah...more of her complaining about KFed as if you, me and the whole world didn't tell her he was a dumb-ass while she was out selling his story to all the papz and telling us how he was "better than KFed. Yeah, like anyone wants to hear her complain about him now, and wait, didn't they say they weren't going to release those songs anyway, and here it is two months before her album was supposedly going to drop, and Jive has yet to announce a drop date, and the only "new material" she has to get you

I find it amazing that there are paps everywhere she happens to be...public bathrooms, her front yard, tracking down her mother, hitting a parked car, and now filming her being stopped by the highway patrol...how could they possibly know Britney would be on the road then and there getting stopped? They must travel with her as part of her entourage.

August 26, 2007 9:36 PM

Why is it that every single pic you see of her she has something on her clothing? There are always marks on them. She obviously has no self pride to walk around like that. I have not seen 1 pic of her without something spilled on herself! Makes you wonder.

One would also think that seeing that there is this custody battle that she would stay at home and try and impress the courts that she is leading a respectable life. If she looses her boys she should just take a look in the mirror with someone else's glasses and she might get a shock. She is tacky, even the poorest people in Africa have more pride than what she does. Britney, you do not deserve to have those children and neither does anyone else in your family, they would have a better chance of a "normal" life if you let someone who really wants to have children, to raise them!
